

North Ridge Dress Code

Approved May 28, 2015

The criteria set forth below will help to insure the dignity and respect appropriate for the traditions associated with the Club.

These criteria must be observed by members, spouses of members, all children and guests. It is important that members advise their guests of these criteria. The dress code will be administered by the pro-shop staff, the service managers, bartenders and the house committee chair, under the guidance of the general manager.

All Areas:

1. Attire not appropriate for men or women:

- (a) Athletic or running shorts not sold in golf retail outlets as golf attire
- (b) Sweat pants (fleece) and pants that gather at the cuff
- (c) Swim shorts or cut offs
- (d) T-shirts of any kind (no collar, casual, logoed, athletic type)
- (e) Tank tops (athletic type)
- (f) Spandex clothes (tight fitting, athletic, running or biking related)
- (g) Hats worn backwards - all hats to be worn with bill facing forward

2. Attire not appropriate for men:

- (a) Shirt tail worn outside the pants or shorts on the course

3. Attire not appropriate for women:

- (a) Bare midriff
- (b) Tube tops (Shirt with “no sleeves and shoulders” or “strapless” and bare midriff)
- (c) Micro shorts or skirts – Shorts or skirts usually less than 8 inches, exposing the upper thighs and or lower portion of the buttocks, all shorts or skirts worn by women must adhere to industry standards (see item 5 (c) following).

Golf Course & Practice Facilities:

4. Men’s attire:

- (a) Denim or jeans of any type or color, including pants or shorts that resemble blue jeans, are not allowed.
- (b) Shirts must be tucked in at all times
- (c) All shirts are to be collared, turtleneck or mock turtleneck

5. Women’s attire:

- (a) Denim or jeans of any type or color, including pants or shorts that resemble blue jeans, are not allowed.
- (b) Women golfers are to wear proper golf attire which includes dresses, shorts, skirts, slacks, capris and golf tops. Sleeveless tops must have a collar.
- (c) Length of shorts and skirts shall follow industry standards (determined by the product lines sold by leading women’s golf apparel companies).
- (d) Women golfers may not wear halter tops, spaghetti straps or open back tops.

Clubhouse:

6. Men must have shirts tucked in unless the shirt is tailored and hemmed evenly along the bottom and is of a style that is designed to be worn outside the trousers.

7. Blue denim or jeans of any color may be worn by men and women in the grill, grill patio, dining room patio, card rooms, locker rooms and pro-shop. The denim must be in good repair, must have no rips, tatters, frays or holes and must not be worn sagging. No blue denim or jeans of any type may be worn in the dining room.

8. Caps, hats and visors are not to be worn in the clubhouse by men. This restriction does not include the snack bar, pro-shop or locker room.

Special Events & Circumstances:

9. Exceptions to the Dress Code may be made for special “theme” parties and events. These exceptions will be predetermined by the general manager and clearly stated prior to the event.

10. Exceptions will be allowed for children under the age of four.

At the direction of the Board, Club management, as outlined above, has been authorized to inform any members of a violation. Members and guests who arrive out of Dress Code compliance will be required to change into proper attire. If the member chooses not to abide by the warning, the incident will be reported to the general manager who will investigate and report to the House Committee, which may take additional measures as warranted. Repeat violations will be presented to the Board for possible disciplinary action.
